Suspected case of plague taken from steamship Nippon Maru.

Passed Assistant Surgeon Cofer reports, September 29, 1903, as follows:

I have the honor to report the arrival here yesterday of the steamship Nippon Maru, from oriental ports, with a suspected case of pestis ambulans on board. The vessel was placed in quarantine, her cargo lightered, the sick man and the steerage passengers taken to the quarantine station, and the patient's quarters fumigated. The case will be given further study and the results cabled to Passed Assistant Surgeon Cumming at San Francisco, Cal., before the steamer's arrival at that port.
